

Privacy Notice (How we use Parent/Carer information)

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about parents and carers.

The categories of parent/carers information that we may collect, use, hold and share include but not restricted to:

- Personal information (such as name, address, telephone number and email address).
- Details in respect of pupil premium entitlements and free school meal eligibility (National Insurance Number & date of birth).

Why we collect and use this information

We use parent/carers data:

- To enable routine and emergency contact
- To ensure admission eligibility
- To access grant funding to support student outcomes

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use parent/carers information under the following:

General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) Article 6

- Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller

General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) Article 9

- Processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of a data subject or another individual where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent

Collecting Parent/Carer Information

Whilst the majority of parent/carers information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection

Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing Parent/Carer data

We hold parent/carers data until the child leaves the school. We may also keep data beyond your child's attendance at one of our schools if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations.

Who we share parent/carers information with

We routinely share parent/carers information with:

The Local Authority

Parent communications providers

Parent payment providers

Department for Education (DFE)

Central and Local Government

Health authorities

Professional advisors and consultants

Police forces, courts and tribunals

Why we share Parent/Carers information

We do not share information about pupils/carers with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents/carers have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information contact the School Business Manager.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means

- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
